TAFT WILL BE PROFESSOR AT YALE, IS STORY

NEW YORK, December 19. President Taft will not go to Cincinnati and practice law when he leaves the White House, but has agreed to accept a professorship in Yale law school. This statement was made authoritatively tonight by a close friend of Taft, who said he was acquainted with the President's plans.

The informant stated tonight that President Taft will accept the Kent professorship of law, which has been unfilled since the death of Edward J. Phelps in 1900. Phelps was appointed to the professorship in 1881, and although he became Minister to Great Britain by appointment of President Cleveland in 1885, he retained it until his death. The professorship covers lectures in both constitutional and international law.

President Hadley, when asked about the conclusion of President Taft to accept the Kent professorship, said tonight at his home in New Haven:
"Your information that President Taft is to come to Yale is much more complete than my own. I hadn't heard of it. The Kent professorship has been unfilled since the death of Mr. Phelps, but there is an endowment for the continuance of the professorship. I can't tell you the amount of the endowment without consulting the papers at my office."

Will Have a Fair Income
The Kent endowment is about $5000 a year, and this income, with President Taft's present income of $8000 a year, is said to be regarded by him as sufficient for the needs of himself and his family.

It is understood that President Taft's motive in accepting the Kent professorship is due chiefly to his fondness for Yale University and all it represents. No alumnus of the institution is held in higher esteem by the entire graduate body than President Taft.

Aside from a natural desire which President Taft would have for a post such as the Kent professorship, which offers a somewhat wider field for lectures than the usual professorship, his friend who talked of the matter today said that the offer from Yale solves a question which has caused the President no little embarrassment since the last election, when he had considered returning to the practice of the law. Many of the Federal Judges before whom he would be expected to appear have been appointed to the bench by President Taft, while he has also appointed a majority of the Supreme Court, and this would embarrass the President in the highest court in the land.

Place Appeals to Taft
It is known that the talks the President has made recently with members of Yale corporation here directly upon the desire of the university to have him accept the Kent professorship, but it was determined by the university authorities to permit the President to make the announcement when he felt ready to do so.

Yale men feel that the Kent professorship is one which appeals particularly to Taft, because of his distinguished predecessor, Edward John Phelps. Phelps, who was a native of Vermont, was president of the American Bar Association the year before he was called to Yale. During his incumbency the professorship became one of the best known in the country.
In 1893 he was one of the counsel for the United States in the arbitration over the Behring sea controversy, in which his knowledge of international law made him valuable to his government.

A precedent for the invitation of President Taft to a Yale professorship is found in the appointment of the late President Cleveland as Stafford Little lecturer at Princeton.

CANE PESTS MAY STOP FOREIGN SHIPMENTS

By C. S. ALBERT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent) WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.—The following announcement of importance to Hawaii is made by the Department of Agriculture:
Hearing on Proposed Quarantine Against Sugar Cane.

The attention of the Federal Quarantine Board has been called by the Bureau of Plant Industry and the Bureau of Entomology to the fact that dangerous plant diseases and insect pests are liable to be introduced into the United States on sugar cane imported into this country. Therefore, in accordance with the Plant Quarantine Act of August 29, 1912, a public hearing will be held to consider the advisability of restricting or prohibiting the importation of sugar cane into the United States. If the proposed quarantine is established it will probably restrict or prohibit the importation of all sugar cane plants and parts of plants from foreign countries into the United States, including Porto Rico and Hawaii, and also from the continental United States.

The public hearing on the proposed quarantine against sugar cane will be held at the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., on January 7, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m. At this hearing those interested may appear and be heard either in person or by attorney in relation to the proposed quarantine.
